RESEARCH FORUM

No Religion but Social Religion

28th – 29th of June 2019

Welcome to the Research Forum at Reutlingen School of Theology!

The Research Forum is a platform for all who are involved in academic theology and in some way are related to the United Methodist Church or to Reutlingen School of Theology. It also invites those who are working on theology related to Methodist tradition.

During the Research Forum you can present and discuss your own research project in small groups.
The topic of your presentation form all fields of theology does not have to be linked to the main theme of the Forum. For every presentation – in English or German – including discussions there will be a time frame of 90 minutes.

„No Religion but Social Religion“

Prof. Dr. Jörg Rieger

Public Lecture on Friday, 28th of June, 19:30h

The keynote of the Forum will be given by Dr. Jörg Rieger, Professor at the Vanderbilt University (USA) on the topic: "No Religion but Social Religion".

Jörg Rieger is an outstanding Methodist theologian. Besides the public lecture Jörg Rieger will discuss his theological approach which is inspired by Liberation Theology in one of the small groups during the Forum.

PLEASE NOTE:

„Identity and Dialogue“

Seminar on Religious Studies und Missiology
(26th – 28th of June 2019)

In the days just before the Research Forum Reutlingen School of Theology will conduct a seminar on religious studies and missiology with the topic "Identity and Dialogue". The seminar will be hosted in connection with "The United Methodist Ecumenical and Interreligious Training" (UMEIT) and promoted by „LEaD Hub – Europe“. You are most welcome to also participate in this event.

Beginning: Wednesday, 26th of June, 08:15h

End: Friday, 28th of June, 12:45h

Please sign up for this seminar separately.

For further information and registration please visit:
